The Journey to 'Night in Paris'

Chitravel's journey to filmmaking began at a young age. She was always fascinated by the power of storytelling, and she loved to write and direct short films with her friends. After graduating from college, Chitravel moved to Mumbai to pursue her dream of becoming a filmmaker.

In Mumbai, Chitravel worked as an assistant director on several films before finally getting her chance to direct her own film. "Night in Paris" is a semi-autobiographical film that follows the story of a young woman who travels to Paris to find herself. The film explores themes of female empowerment, self-discovery, and the importance of following your dreams.

Challenges as a Woman in the Film Industry

As a woman in the film industry, Chitravel has faced her fair share of challenges. She has often been the only woman on set, and she has had to work twice as hard to prove herself. But Chitravel has never let the challenges she has faced stop her from pursuing her dreams.

"I've learned that it's important to be persistent and to never give up on your dreams," Chitravel says. "No matter what obstacles you face, you can overcome them if you're determined enough."

Fashion and Female Empowerment

In addition to her work as a filmmaker, Chitravel is also a successful fashion designer. She launched her own clothing line, "Iniya," in 2015. Chitravel's clothing is designed to empower women and make them feel beautiful and confident.

"I believe that fashion can be a powerful tool for female empowerment," Chitravel says. "When women wear clothes that make them feel good about themselves, it gives them the confidence to go out and achieve their goals."

Inspiring Others

Chitravel is passionate about using her platform to inspire others. She regularly speaks at events and gives workshops on female empowerment and self-discovery. Chitravel also mentors young women who are interested in pursuing careers in the film industry.
